

CEE MS and
CEE MS and MEng Non-Thesis Project Graduate Student Rubric

Student Name: _____ printed and signed

Adviser: _____ printed and signed

Exam Date: _____

Exam: circle one: MS Non-Thesis Final Project / MEng Non-Thesis Final Project

Faculty Adviser: Please check the appropriate box for each measure then return to CEE's DGSA (Ruby Nell Carpenter) immediately after the examination.

Extent to which student:	Poor (1)	(2)	Satisfactory (3)	(4)	Excellent (5)
Demonstrated a proficiency of core knowledge in track-specific areas.
Develop and apply associated technologies to the solution of engineering problems
Broaden their professional foundations through the preparation of participation in professional organizations
Assemble technical manuscripts and be prepared to publish them as reports to colleagues and in leading journals in their field of interest
Prepare to effectively communicate the importance of engineering projects to both a panel of experts and be prepared to make presentations to a broader professional audience

1. Professional Publications:
2. Professional Presentations:
3. Professional Memberships: