CEE Ph. D. Dissertation and MS Thesis Graduate Student Rubric

Student Name:_____   printed and signed
Adviser: _____   printed and signed
Exam Date: _____
Exam: circle one   Ph.D. Qualifying   Ph.D. Preliminary   Ph.D. Final   MS Final

Faculty Adviser: Note this form is not to be used for pass/fail on dissertations.
Please check the appropriate box for each measure then return to CEE's DGSA (Ruby Nell Carpenter) immediately after the examination.

Extent to which student:	Poor (1)	(2)	Satisfactory (3)	(4)	Excellent (5)
Demonstrated a proficiency of core knowledge in track-specific areas.
Demonstrated a proficiency of core knowledge in applied mathematics or statistics.
Effectively communicated the importance of research projects to a panel of experts and a broad audience
Independently identified an important research question in their field of specialization.
Demonstrated an ability to effectively develop a research plan.
Demonstrated an ability to effectively execute a research plan.
Critically analyzed and interpreted research data.
Drew valid conclusions from data.
Made a convincing case for the contribution of the work towards advancing knowledge in the area of specialization.

1. Professional Publications:

2. Professional Presentations:

3. Professional Memberships: